

HIGH ⚡ VOLTAGE CONFUSSION ART • SHOW • RULES

Thank you for your interest in the 2008 ConFusion Art Show. Here are some basic rules to abide by for this year.

First, there is no art auction. All sales are flat-rate and final. Price your pieces accordingly.

Secondly, we are tailoring our show to focus on prints, as they seem to sell easier in this area.

Third, originals will be accepted into the show under the previous rule of flat-rate pricing and they will be displayed separately from the prints.

Mail-ins are accepted and returns will be made the Monday after the convention has ended. Mail-ins should be sent no later than January 7, 2008. Any mail-in artist should contact me to discuss return postage.

There will be no fee for displaying pieces, but a 10% commission from sales will be taken to expand our show budget for next year.

It is my hope to institute an artist alley, where any artist looking to promote themselves and sell any other non-matted work (posters, comics, CDs of art, etc.) I hope that this would also allow artists to meet and converse about our shared craft. Anyone interested in participating with the artist alley, please contact me at the email address below and I will begin to set up a time/seat chart.

Thank you for your time and interest in the 2008 ConFusion Art Show.
